New Identity & new logo

We have changed our name from Vajrayana Dharma Foundation (VDF) to Education At Elevation, or E@E for short. The new name conveys our mission to educate and nurture impoverished children and orphans living in eastern Tibet. Thanks to Sean, we also have a new logo. Way to go Sean!

New Web Site www.EducationAtElevation.org

Many of you may recall that our VDF website had been compromised in November 2011. A big “thank you” to Adam and Patrick who took the initiative in January to create a new website with better security and ease of maintenance. The new website is more dynamic and provides more information. We have also added live weather updates. The weather logs are representative to eastern Tibet and close in elevation to our school. Do you ever wonder how cold is it at the school? Simply visit our website and find out.

What's new at the school?

There was a change in teaching staff last Fall. The teachers, two monks and a nun, left the school in October 2011 after they completed their contracts. The male teachers taught Tibetan and dharma study to the boys. The nun taught Tibetan to the girls and Mandarin to the both boys and girls for a year. In addition to instruction, the teachers also acted as caretakers to the children. Each day they taught long hours—dawn until early evening—without time off for weekends or holidays. The students requested to have a previous teacher return to the school to instruct again. This teacher taught when the school first opened. We are happy to announce that he agreed to return to the school and has been

A big THANK YOU to all the wonderful and generous donors! E@E has raised approximately $8,500 USD during our 2011 Holiday cookie and calendar drive. A special thank you goes members of the Wey Family who have collectively donated $5,400 to education and food for the children. The total donation from the cookie and calendar drive will help pay for approximately 5 months of dried food for 80 children and a year's salary for one teacher.

Thank you Aimee, for leading the holiday drive and for donating the edible gold dust. Yes, we called it karma dust! We appreciate all the efforts of the volunteers who helped prepare, scoop, bake, and bag the cookies, as well as design and distribute the calendars. After spending eight hours at the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Post 2995 Hall in Redmond, we baked 232 dozen or 2800 original and dark karma cookies!

Mission: To provide a home and education opportunity for impoverished and orphaned Tibetan children in Garze Tibetan Autonomous Prefecture (Eastern Tibet), China.

The project was initiated by Sonam Rinpoche, a native Tibetan, who was recognized as the reincarnation of Ahzom Losel Rinpoche by H.H. 14th Dalai Lama and H.H. Dordrubchan Rinpoche.
